

Climate Change Adaptation Policy Workshop

sponsored by the

WESTERN GOVERNORS' ASSOCIATION & WESTERN STATES WATER COUNCIL

in cooperation with

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF WATER RESOURCES

Hilton Irvine/Orange County Airport 18800 MacArthur Blvd.

Irvine, California
September 24-26, 2008

The Western Governors' Association, the Western States Water Council, and the California Department of Water Resources are cosponsoring a workshop on climate change adaptation policy on September 24-26 in Irvine, California at the Hilton Irvine/Orange County Airport. The workshop will begin Wednesday, September 24 at 10:30 a.m. and conclude Friday, September 26 by 12 noon.

The workshop pre-registration fee is $200 through August 24th, and $250 thereafter. A check, money order, or purchase order should accompany this form.

Please contact the Hilton reservations department directly at (949) 833-9999, or 1-800-445-8667 and identify yourself as attending the Western States Water Council meetings. Room reservations must be made by the September 2 deadline to obtain the workshop block rate of $118 single occupancy.

The focus of the workshop is on tools for adaptation to climate change variability, including beginning development of a set of tools that states could use as a standard of practice for adaptation to climate change impacts. State water management agencies and others under the auspices of the Western States Water Council are uniquely positioned to advise western governors as part of implementing their June 2006 report, "Water Needs and Strategies for a Sustainable Future," and the June 2008 "Next Steps" report.
